17. Power to grant lease of right to manufacture, etc.—(1) The State Government may lease to any person, on such conditions and for such period as it may think fit, the exclusive or other right—

(a) of manufacturing or supplying by wholesale or of both, or (b) of selling by wholesale or by retail, or
(c) of manufacturing or supplying by wholesale, or of both, and of selling by retail any Indian liquor or intoxicating drug within any specified area.

(2) The licensing authority may grant to a lessee under sub-section (1), a licence in the terms of his lease; and when there is no condition in the lease, which prohibits sub-letting may, on the application of the lessee, grant licences to any sub-lessee approved by such authority.

18. Lessee's permission to draw toddy.—Where a right to manufacture toddy has been leased under section 17, the State Government may declare that the written permission of the lessee to draw toddy shall have the same force and effect as a licence under section 13 from the Deputy Commissioner for that purpose.

19. Duties of licensees with regard to measurement and testing.—Every person, who manufactures or sells any intoxicant under a licence granted under this Act shall be bound—

(a) to provide himself with such measures, weights and instruments as the Excise Commissioner may prescribe and to keep the same in good condition and on the licensed premises, and

(b) on the requisition of the Excise Officer duly empowered in that behalf, at any time to measure, weigh or test any intoxicant in his possession in such manner as the said Excise Officer may require.

20. Prohibition of employment of children and of women.—(1) No person, who is licensed to sell any intoxicant for consumption on his premises shall, during the hours in which such premises are kept open for persons, employ or permit to be employed, either with or without remuneration, any children under such age as the State Government may, by rule, prescribe in this behalf, in any part of such premises in which such excisable article is consumed by the public.

(2) No person who is licensed to sell any intoxicant for consumption at his premises shall, without the previous permission in writing of the Deputy Commissioner, during the hours in which such premises are kept open for persons, employ or permit to be employed, either with or without remuneration, any women in any part of such premises in which such excisable article is consumed by the public.

(3) Every permission granted under sub-section (2) shall be endorsed on the licence and may be modified and withdrawn.

21. Closing of shops for the preservation of public peace.—(1) The District Magistrate may, by notice in writing to the licensee require that any shops in which any intoxicant is sold shall be closed at such times and for such period as he may think necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

(2) If any riot or any unlawful assembly is apprehended or occurs in the vicinity of any such shop, any Magistrate or any Police Officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, who is present, may require such shop to be kept closed for such period as he may think necessary :

Provided that where a riot or unlawful assembly so occurs, the licensee shall in the absence of such Magistrate or Officer, close the shop without any order and keep it closed during the continuance of such riot or unlawful assembly.

CHAPTER V.

Excise Duty and Countervailing Duty.

22. Excise duty or countervailing duty on excisable articles.—(1) An excise duty at such rate or rates as the State Government may prescribe, shall be levied on any excisable article manufactured or produced in the State under any licence or permit granted under this Act.

(2) A countervailing duty at such rate or rates as the State Government, may prescribe shall be levied on any excisable article manufactured or produced in India outside the State and imported into the State under a licence or permit granted under this Act.

(3) The rates prescribed under sub-sections (1) and (2) may be different for different kinds of excisable articles and may also be different when levied in the different ways specified in section 23.

23. Ways of levying such duties.—Subject to such rules regulating the time, place and manner, as may be prescribed, excise duty and countervailing duty under section 22 shall be levied in one or more of the following ways as may be prescribed, namely :—

(a) rateably on the quantity of any excisable article produced or manufactured in or issued from a distillery, brewery, manufactory or warehouse, or imported into the State :

(b) in the case of spirit or other liquor produced in any distillery established or any distillery, brewery or manufactory licensed under this Act, in accordance with its quality or strength, or in accordance with such scale of equivalents calculated on the quantity of materials used, or by the degree of attenuation of the wash or wort, as the case may be, as may be prescribed ;

(c) in the case of toddy, by tax on each tree from which toddy is drawn ;

(d) by fees on licences in respect of the manufacture or sale of any excisable article.

24. Excise duty in respect of grant of leases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 22 and 23, the sum accepted in consideration of the grant of any lease relating to any excisable article under section 17, shall be the excise duty or countervailing duty payable in respect of such excisable article in addition to any duty payable under sections 22 and 23.

25. Tax for tapping trees from whom leviable.—When duty is levied by way of tax on toddy trees under section 23, and toddy trees are tapped without licence, the tax due shall be recoverable primarily from the tapper or in default by him, from the occupier, if any, of the land, or if the trees do not belong to the occupier of the land, or if the land is not occupied, from the person, if any, who owns or is in possession of the trees, unless he proves that the trees were tapped without his consent.

CHAPTER VI.

LICENCES AND PERMITS.

26. Form and conditions of licence, etc.—(1) Every licence or permit granted under this Act shall be granted on payment of such fees, for such period, and subject to such restrictions and on such conditions, and shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars, as may be prescribed.

(2) The conditions prescribed under sub-section (1) may include provision of accommodation by the licensee to Excise Officers at the licenced premises or the payment of rent or other charges for such accommodation at or near the licensed premises, and the payment of the costs, charges and expenses (including the salaries and allowances of the Excise Officers) which the State Government may incur in connection with supervision to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Act, the rules made thereunder and the licence.

27. Power to take security and counterpart agreement.—Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, any authority granting a licence under this Act may require the licensee—

(a) to give security for the observance of the terms of his licence, and

(b) to execute a counterpart agreement in conformity with the tenor of his licence.

28. Technical defects, irregularities and omissions.—(1) No licence granted under this Act shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any technical defect, irregularity or omission in the licence or in any proceedings taken prior to the grant thereof.

(2) The decision of the Excise Commissioner as to what is a technical defect, irregularity or omission, shall be final.

29. Power to cancel or suspend licence, etc.—(1) Subject to such restrictions as the State Government may prescribe, the authority granting any licence or permit under this Act may cancel or suspend it,—

(a) if any duty or fee payable by the holder thereof is not duly paid ; or

(b) in the event of any breach by the holder thereof, or by any of his servants or by any one acting on his behalf with his express or implied permission, of any of the terms and conditions thereof ; or

(c) if the holder thereof or any of his servants or any one acting on his behalf with his express or implied permission, is convicted of any offence under this Act; or

(d) if the holder thereof is convicted of any cognizable and non-bailable offence or of any offence under the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930, or under the Medicinal and Toilet Preparations (Excise Duties) Act, 1955, or under the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 1958, or under section 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488 or 489 of the Indian Penal Code or of any offence punishable under section 112 or 114 of the Customs Act, 1962; or (e) if the conditions of the licence or permit provide for such cancellation or suspension at will.

(2) Where a licence or permit held by any person is cancelled under clause (a), clause (b), clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1), the authority aforesaid may cancel any other licence or permit granted to such person under this Act or under the Opium Act, 1878.

(3) The holder shall not be entitled to any compensation for its cancellation or suspension nor to the refund of any fee paid or deposit made in respect thereof.

30. Power to withdraw licence.—(1) Whenever the authority which granted any licence under this Act considers that such licence should be withdrawn for any cause other than those specified in section 29, it may withdraw the licence on the expiration of not less than thirty days' notice in writing of its intention to do so.

(2) When a licence is withdrawn under sub-section (1), a part of the licence fee proportionate to the unexpired portion of the term of the licence and the deposit made by the licensee in respect thereof shall be refunded to him after deducting the amount due from him to the State Government.

31. Surrender of licence.—(1) Any holder of a licence granted under this Act to sell an excisable article may surrender his licence on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given by him to the Deputy Commissioner of his intention to surrender the same and on payment of the fee payable for the licence for the remainder of the period for which it would have been current but for such surrender:

Provided that if the Excise Commissioner is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for surrendering a licence, he may remit the sum so payable on surrender or any portion thereof.

(2) Sub-section (1) shall not apply in the case of any licence granted under section 17.

CHAPTER VII.

Offences and Penalties.

32. Penalty for illegal import, etc.—Whoever, in contravention of this Act, or any rule, notification or order, made, issued or given thereunder, or of any licence or permit granted under this Act, imports, exports, transports, manufactures, collects or possesses any intoxicant, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and with fine:

Penalty for consumption in Chemist's shop, etc.—(1) A chemist druggist, apothecary or keeper of a dispensary, who allows any intoxicant which has not been bona fide medicated for medicinal purposes to be consumed on his business premises by any person shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Any person not employed as aforesaid, who consumes any such intoxicant on such premises shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

39. Manufacture, sale or possession by one person on account of another.—(1) Where any intoxicant has been manufactured or sold or is possessed by any person on account of any other person and such other person knows or has reason to believe that such manufacture or sale was or that such possession is, on his account, the article shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been manufactured or sold by or to be in the possession of such other person.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall absolve any person, who manufactures, sells or has possession of any intoxicant on account of another person from liability to any punishment under this Act for unlawful manufacture, sale or possession of such article.

40. Presumption as to commission of offence in certain cases.—In prosecutions under section 32 and section 34, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the accused person has committed the offence punishable under that section in respect of—

(a) any intoxicant; or

(b) any still, utensil, implement or apparatus whatsoever in the manufacture of any intoxicant other than toddy; or

(c) any materials which have undergone any process towards the manufacture of an intoxicant or from which an intoxicant has been manufactured, for the possession of which he is unable to account satisfactorily.

41. Criminal liability of licensee for acts of servants.—Where any offence under section 32, section 33, section 34, section 36 or section 37 is committed by any person in the employ and acting on behalf of the holder of a licence or permit granted under this Act, such holder shall also be punishable as if he had comitted himself the said offence, unless he establishes that all due and reasonable precautions were exercised by him to prevent the commission of such offence:

Provided that no person other than the actual offender shall be punishable under this section with imprisonment, except in default of payment of fine.

42. Enhanced punishment after previous conviction.—If any person, after having been previously convicted of an offence punishable under section 32, section 33 section 34, section 37 or section 38 or under the corresponding provisions of any enactment repealed by this Act, subsequently commits and is convicted of an offence punishable under any of these sections, he shall be liable to twice the punishment which might be imposed on a first conviction under this Act:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any offence which might otherwise have been tried summarily under Chapter XXII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, from being so tried.

43. Liability of certain things to confiscation.—Whenever an offence has been committed, which is punishable under this Act, the following things shall be liable to confiscation, namely :—

(1) any intoxicant, materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus in respect of, or by means of which, such offence has been committed ;

(2) any intoxicant lawfully imported, transported, manufactured, had in possession or sold along with, or in addition to, any intoxicant liable to confiscation under clause (1) ; and

(3) any receptacle, package, or covering in which anything liable to confiscation under clause (1) or clause (2), is found, and the other contents, if any, of such receptacle, package or covering and any animal, vehicle, vessel, raft or other conveyance used for carrying the same :

Provided that, if anything specified in clause (3) is not the property of the offender, it shall not be confiscated if the owner thereof had no reason to believe that such offence was being or was likely to be committed.

44. Order of confiscation.—(1) Where in any case tried by him, the Magistrate decides that anything is liable to confiscation under section 43, he may either order confiscation or may give the owner of the thing liable to be confiscated an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the Magistrate thinks fit.

(2) When an offence under this Act has been committed, but the offender is not known or cannot be found, or when anything liable to confiscation under this Act, and not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the case shall be inquired into and determined by the Excise Commissioner or by any other officer authorised by the State Government in that behalf, who may order such confiscation :

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing the goods intended to be confiscated or without hearing the persons, if any, claiming any right thereto, and the evidence, if any, which they produce, in support of their claims :

Provided further that if the thing in question is liable to speedy and natural decay, or if the Excise Commissioner or the authorised officer is of opinion that the sale would be for the benefit of its owner, he may at any time direct it to be sold and the provisions of this section shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of such sale.

45. Compounding of offences.—(1) The Excise Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner, or any Excise Officer specially empowered in that behalf may accept from any person whose licence or permit is liable to be cancelled or suspended under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 29 or who is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence under sub-section (2) of section 32, section 33, section 34, section 35, section 36 or sub-section (2) of section 37, a sum of money not exceeding one thousand rupees and subject to such minima as may be prescribed, in lieu of such cancellation or suspension or by way of compensation for the offence which may have been committed, as the case may be ; and in all cases in which any property has been seized as liable to confiscation under this Act, may release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

(2) On the payment by such person of such sum of money or such value or both, as the case may be, such person, if in custody, shall be set at liberty and all the property seized may be released and no proceedings shall be instituted against such person in any Criminal Court. The acceptance of compensation shall be deemed to amount to an acquittal and in no case shall any further proceedings be taken against such person or property with reference to the same act.

46. Penalty on Excise Officer making vexatious search, seizure, detention or arrest.—Any Excise Officer or other person who vexatiously and without reasonable ground for suspicion—

(a) enters or searches or causes to be entered or searched any closed place under colour of exercising any power conferred by this Act, or

(b) seizes the moveable property of any person on the pretext of seizing or searching for any article liable to confiscation under this Act, or

(c) searches, detains or arrests any person, or

(d) in any other way exceeds his lawful powers under this Act shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

47. Penalty for Excise Officer refusing to do duty.—Any Excise Officer, who, without lawful excuse shall cease or refuse to perform or withdraws himself from, the duties of his office, unless expressly allowed to do so in writing by the Excise Commissioner, or unless he shall have given to his official superior officer two months' notice in writing of his intention to do so, or who shall be guilty of cowardice, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment, which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

48. Penalty for vexatious delay.—Any officer or person exercising powers under this Act, who vexatiously and unnecessarily delays forwarding to the nearest Excise Officer or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station, as required by sub-section (2) of section 59 any person arrested, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

49. Penalty for abetment of escape of persons arrested, etc.—Any officer or person who unlawfully releases or abets the escape of any person arrested under this Act or abets the commission of any offence against this Act, or acts in any manner inconsistent with his duty for the purpose of enabling any person to do anything whereby any of the provisions of this Act may be evaded or contravened or the excise revenue may be defrauded and any officer of any other Department referred to in section 50 who abets the commission of any offence against this Act in any place, shall, on conviction, for every such offence, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

CHAPTER VIII.

DETECTION, INVESTIGATION AND TRIAL OF OFFENCES.

50. Landholders, officers and others to give information.—(1) Whenever any intoxicant is manufactured or collected, or any hemp plant is cultivated, in or on any land or building, in contravention of this Act—

(a) all owners and occupiers of such land or building or their agents, and

(b) (i) village officers or servants including members of the village police,

(ii) Chairman, members and officers of the village panchayat, and

(iii) all officers (other than Excise Officers), employed in the collection of revenue or rent of land on behalf of the State Government, or a local authority in the locality in which such land or building is situate, shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, be bound to give notice of the fact to a magistrate or to an officer of the Excise or Police or Revenue Department as soon as the fact comes to their knowledge.

(2) Every Excise Officer shall be bound to give immediate information either to his immediate official superior or to an Excise Inspector, of all breaches of any of the provisions of this Act, which may come to his knowledge under sub-section (1) or otherwise.

(3) All such officers, chairmen members or servants as are referred to in sub-section (1) shall be bound—

(a) to take all reasonable measures in their power to prevent the commission of such breaches which they may know, or have reason to believe are about or likely to be committed; and

(b) to assist the Excise Commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

51. Power to enter and inspect places of manufacture and sale.—The Excise Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner or any Excise

Officer not below such rank as may be prescribed, or any Police Officer duly empowered in that behalf, may—

(a) enter and inspect, at any time, by day or by night, any place in which any licensed manufacturer manufactures or stores any intoxicant, and

(b) enter and inspect at any time within the hours during which sale is permitted, and at any other time during which the same may be open, any place in which any intoxicant is kept for sale by any person holding a licence under this Act; and

(c) examine the accounts and registers, and examine, test, measure or weigh any materials, stills, utensils, implements, apparatus, or intoxicant found in such place.

52. Power to arrest without warrant, to seize articles liable for confiscation and to make searches.—(1) Any officer of the State Government employed in the Excise, Police or Revenue Department of the State, subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed, and any other person duly empowered, may—

(a) arrest without warrant any person found committing an offence punishable under section 32, section 33, section 34, section 36 or section 37;

(b) seize and detain any excisable or other article which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act, or any other law for the time being in force, relating to excise revenue; and

(c) detain and search any person upon whom, and any vessel raft, vehicle, animal, package, receptacle or covering in or upon which, he may have reasonable cause to suspect any such article to be.

(2) When any person is accused or is reasonably suspected of committing an offence under this Act, other than an offence under section 32, section 33, section 34, section 36 or section 37 and on demand of any such officer as aforesaid, refuses to give his name and residence or gives a name and residence which such officer has reason to believe is false, he may be arrested by such officer, in order that his name and residence may be ascertained.

53. Power of magistrate to issue a warrant.—If a magistrate, upon information and after such enquiry (if any) as he thinks necessary, has reason to believe that an offence under section 32, section 33, section 34, section 36 or section 37 has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed, he may issue a warrant—

(a) for the search of any place in which he has reason to believe that any intoxicant, still, utensil, implement, apparatus or materials which are used for the commission of such offence or in respect of which such offence has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed, are kept or concealed, and

(b) for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have been, to be, or to be likely to be, engaged in the commission of any such offence.

54. Power to search without warrant.—Whenever the Excise Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner or any police officer not below the rank of an officer in charge of a police station or any Excise Officer not below such rank as may be prescribed, has reason to believe that an offence under section 32, section 33, section 34, section 36 or section 37 has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed, and that a search warrant cannot be obtained without affording the offender an opportunity of escape or of concealing evidence of the offence, he may, after recording the grounds of his belief—

(a) at any time by day or by night enter and search any place and seize anything found therein which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act; and

(b) detain and search and, if he thinks proper, arrest any person found in such place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of such offence as aforesaid.

55. Power of Excise Officers in matters of investigation.—(1) Any Excise Inspector or any Excise Officer not below such rank and within such specified area as the State Government may, by notification, prescribe, may, as regards offences under section 32, section 33 section 34, section 36 or section 37 exercise powers conferred on an officer in charge of a police station by the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898:

Provided that any such power shall be subject to such restrictions and modifications, if any, as the State Government may prescribe.

(2) For the purposes of section 156 of the said Code, the area in regard to which an Excise Inspector is empowered under subsection (1), shall be deemed to be a police station and such officer shall be deemed to be the officer in charge of such station.

56. Report by Investigating Officer.—If, on any investigation by an Excise Inspector or an Excise Officer empowered under subsection (1) of section 55, it appears that there is sufficient evidence to justify the prosecution of the accused, the Investigating Officer, shall submit a report (which shall, for the purposes of section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be deemed to be a police report), to a Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the case and empowered to take cognizance of offences on police reports.

57. Report by Excise Officer.—Where any Excise Officer below the rank of an Excise Inspector makes any arrest, seizure or search under this Act, he shall, within twenty-four hours thereafter—

(a) make a full report of all the particulars of the arrest, seizure or search to his immediate official superior, and

(b) unless bail be accepted under section 59, take or send the person arrested or the thing seized, with all convenient despatch, to a Magistrate for trial or adjudication.

58. Arrest, search, etc., how to be made.—Any person arrested under this Act shall be informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds for such arrest and save as in this Act otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to arrests, detention in custody, searches, summonses, warrants of arrests, search-warrants, the production of persons arrested and the disposal of things seized, shall apply, as far as may be, to all action taken in these respects under this Act.

59. Security for appearance in case of arrest without warrant.
(1) The State Government may, by notification, empower any Excise

Officer to release on bail persons arrested under this Act, otherwise than on a warrant.

(2) When a person is arrested under this Act, otherwise than on a warrant, by a person or officer who is not authorised to release arrested persons on bail, he shall be produced before or forwarded to,—

(a) the nearest Excise Officer who has authority to release arrested persons on bail, or

(b) the nearest officer in charge of the police station, whoever is nearer.

(3) Whenever any person arrested under this Act, otherwise than on a warrant, is prepared to give bail, and is arrested by or produced in accordance with sub-section (2) before an officer who has authority to release arrested persons on bail, he shall be released on bail or at the discretion of the officer releasing him, on his own bond.

(4) The provisions of sections 499 to 502, section 513, section 514 and section 515 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall apply, so far as may be, in every case, in which bail is accepted or, bond taken under this section.

60. Procedure for prosecution.—No Magistrate shall take cognizance of an offence punishable—

(a) under section 35 or section 38 except on the complaint or report of the Deputy Commissioner or of an Excise Officer authorised by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf, or (b) under any other section of this Act other than section 46 or section 48, except on his own knowledge or suspicion or on the complaint or report of an Excise or Police Officer.

CHAPTER IX

Appeals and Revision.

61. Appeals.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by any officer other than the Excise Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner under this Act, may, within sixty days from the date of communication of such order, appeal to the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the Deputy Commissioner under this Act, may, within ninety days from the date of communication of such order, appeal to the Excise Commissioner

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the Excise Commissioner under sub-section (2), may, within ninety days from the date of communication of such order appeal to the Mysore Revenue Appellate Tribunal.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions, appeals under this section, shall be subject to the rules which the State Government may make in this behalf.

62. Revision.—The State Government may call for and examine the records of any proceedings before any officer including those relating to the grant or refusal of a licence, or permit, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any order passed in, and as to the regularity of such proceedings and may either annul, reverse, modify or confirm such order or pass such other order as it may deem fit :

Provided that no order shall be annulled, reversed or modified except after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person affected by that order.

CHAPTER X.

Miscellaneous.

63. Recovery of Government dues.—(1) The following moneys, namely :—

(a) all excise revenue,

(b) any loss that may accrue when, in consequence of default, a lease under section 17 has been taken under management by the Deputy Commissioner, or has been re-sold by him, and

(c) of amounts due to the Government by any person on account of any contract relating to the excise revenue, may be recovered from the person primarily liable to pay the same or from his surety, if any, as if they were arrears of land revenue.

(2) When a lease has been taken under management by the Deputy Commissioner, or has been re-sold by him, the Deputy Commissioner he may recover, in the manner authorised by sub-section (1), any money due to the defaulter by any lessee or assignee.

64. Government lien on property of defaulters.—In the event of default by any person licensed or holding lease under this Act, all his distillery, brewery or warehouse or shop or premises fittings or apparatus, and all stocks of intoxicants or materials for the manufacture of the same held in or upon any distillery, brewery, warehouse or shop or premises, shall be liable to be attached in satisfaction of any claim for excise revenue, or in respect of any losses incurred by the State Government through such default and to be sold to satisfy such claim which shall be a first charge upon the sale proceeds.

65. Recovery of dues by lessee under section 17.—Any person to whom a lease has been granted in accordance with the provisions of section 17, may, in a case where sub-letting is not forbidden by the terms of the lease, proceed against any person holding under him for the recovery of any money due in respect of such sub-lease as if it were an arrear of rent recoverable under the law for the time being in force with regard to land-lord and tenant :

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the right of any such grantee to recover any such money by a civil suit.

66. Refund in cases of exported liquor.—Where excise duty has been levied in respect of the manufacture or production of any liquor in the State and such liquor is subsequenty exported to any other State in India and is subjected to excise or countervailing duty in that State, the Excise Commissioner may on production of proof of such payment of duty, grant refund of duty already paid to such extent as the State Government may prescribe :

Provided that where the State Government so directs, the Excise Commissioner may, permit during such period or periods as may be specified in such direction, the export of any liquor on which excise duty is payable, on the furnishing of adequate security for payment of the excise duty due thereon; and, on production of proof of payment of countervailing duty on such liquor in any other State, give rebate to the extent prescribed under this section and collect the balance of the excise duty.

67. Power of State Government to exempt, etc.—The State Government may, by notification, and subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in such notificaion,—

(a) exempt or reduce the excise duty levied under section 22 on any liquor sold,

(i) for use or consumption by the members of the Armed Forces of the Union; or

(ii) for use for bona fide medicinal, sciontific, industrial or such like purpose;

(b) exempt any intoxicant from any of the provisions of this Act, other than those of Chapter V, in any specified area or for any specified period or occasion.

68. Protection of action taken under this Act.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the State Government or any Excise Officer or any other person empowered to exercise powers or to perform the functions under this Act for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

69 Limitation of suits.—No suit shall lie against the State Government, or against an Excise Officer, other than a suit by the State Government, in respect of anything done or alleged to have done in pursuance of this Act, unless the suit is instituted within six months from the date of the act complained of.

70. Offences by companies, etc.—(i) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, the company as well as every person in charge of, and responsible to the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this section has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of any Director, Manager, Secretary, or other officer of the Company, such Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

71. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification and after previous publication, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the State Government may make rules—

(a) prescribing the powers and duties of Excise Officers;

(b) regulating the delegation of any power by the Excise Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner under section 7;

(c) prescribing the time and manner of presenting appeals and the procedure for dealing with appeals;

(d) regulating the import, export, transport, manufacture, cultivation, collection, possession, supply or storage of any intoxicant and may, by such rules, among other matters—

(v) prohibit or regulate the transfer of licences ; and

(vi) prescribe the ages under which it shall be unlawful to employ children and to sell or give to children excisable articles ;

(i) providing for the destruction or other disposal of any intoxicant deemed to be unfit for use ;

(j) regulating disposal of confiscated articles ;

(k) regulating the grant of expenses to witnesses and to persons charged with offences under this Act, and subsequently released or acquitted ;

(l) regulating the power of Excise Officers to summon witnesses ;

(m) prescribing the rent payable to the Government in respect of toddy trees from which toddy is drawn ;

(n) any other matter that may be prescribed under this Act.

(3) A rule under this Act may be made with retrospective effect and when such a rule is made the reasons for making the rule shall be specified in a statement laid before both Houses of the State Legislature. Subject to any modification made under sub-section (4), every rule made under this Act shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

(4) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the sessions immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

72. Repeal and saving.—The following enactments, namely :—

(a) The Mysore Excise Act, 1901 (Mysore Act V of 1901) ;

(b) The Abkari Act, 1316 F. (Hyderabad Act I of 1316 F.) and the Intoxicating Drugs Act, 1333 F. (Hyderabad Act IV of 1333 F.);

(c) The Madras Abkari Act, 1886 (Madras Act I of 1886) shall stand repealed :

Provided that section 6 of the Mysore General Clauses Act, 1899 (Mysore Act 3 of 1899) shall be applicable in respect of such repeal, and section 8 and section 24 of the said Act shall be applicable as if the said enactments were enactments within the meaning of the said Act and had been repealed and re-enacted by this Act.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

R SANJEEVALU,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.
